FEIDAL EVENIE DECEMBER 26.

THE MILLIONAIRE BEGGAR - Old Peter Miller, the herm! of Cicero, was on Wednesday sent to the Bridewall by Justice, Doyle on a charge of vagrancy. The old man is reputed to be worth up a sid of $1,000,000. He owes five handred and twenty acres of land in the town of Cicero, The Il inois and Michigan Canel shirts the south bank of the old man's property, and the rickery, weather-heaten hur in which he lives is al-most on the brink of the mucky stream. For over twenty years he has lived slong-side the canal, making weakly trips to the city on begging expeditions. About a year ago his wife committed -ulcide by hanging. Since then he has lived sione and has only left the house on rare occasions. Sometimes the neighbore would not see any signs of life around the premises for a fortnight, and on one occasion when ther broke open the door the old man was found cuddled up in a corner on a pile of rags.

CHILDHOO

When an infant my body broke out all over with an eruption or rash, out all over with an eruption or rash, which became more aggravated as I grew older. Every noted physician in our section was tried or consulted. When I came of age I visited Het Springs, Ark., and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S. S. S., and in four months was entirely and in four months was entirely oured. The terrible Eczema was all gone, not a sign left; my general health built un and I have never had dary return of the disease.
